

Biography for Jasmin Jade Vann

As a daughter of military parents, Jasmin has visited various places in the world. She permanently moved to the States via Bossier City, Louisiana in 1991. Upon graduating from high school, she attended Dillard University in New Orleans, Louisiana and the University of Houston in Texas.

Over the course of thirteen years, she proactively educated, enlightened, and empowered students, as an English educator in Alvin, Texas; Houston, Texas; Sugarland, Texas; Shreveport, Louisiana; and Bossier City, Louisiana. She most recently launched into another dimension of education by supporting fellow educators, as a curriculum coordinator. One of her current endeavors includes launching a non-profit organization for pre-adolescent and teenage girls, as well as young adults.

As a creative, her hobbies and interests include spending time with her loved ones, including her beloved & rescued Silky Yorkie named Tinkerbelle Victoria Grace, writing, volunteering, modeling, the Arts, diversity, culture, dance, black beauty, and fashion.

She is an e-member of The Church at the Well out of Memphis, Tennessee, a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, the founder of “Sandwiches and Socks,” and a member of the National Education Association.

Jasmin’s goal in life is to walk in her destined purpose and to serve as an encouragement to those she is blessed to meet.